MEDICAL FITNESS

Trekking is a strenuous activity and you should be fit and enjoy good health to participate. We will be trekking at extreme altitudes of 5,985 so we ask that all trekkers provide a doctor's certificate to be included with this registration form. Yellow Fever is sometimes required for Tanzania depending on WHO or foreign office guidelines.

Typhoid and Hepatitis A are advisable. We recommend that Tetanus and Polio boosters are up to date. Please consult your GP for up to date information on jabs and malaria tablets.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY- PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

For the Kili trek we require a £800 registration fee (non-refundable).

You must also undertake to provide a further minimum balance of £2,500 for the cost of the trip.

The above amount includes the £300 sponsorship for the charity

If you are unable to provide the balance on the due date you will forfeit your place on the trip.

Should you not be able to take up your place, all moneys raised must be returned to sponsors or forwarded to 'Help an African Schoolchild Trust'

You must be over the age of 18 on the date of departure.

The minimum amount of £3,000 (which includes deposit but does not include £300 sponsorship) must be paid 8 weeks prior to departure.
The minimum total i.e. £3,300 must be paid 2 weeks before departure.

Participants must ensure they have adequate travel & trekking insurance to 5895m and forward a copy to the organisers prior to departure.

Participants must consult their GP for up to date health requirements and provide some written proof that they are healthy enough to participate in strenuous activity at altitudes of 5895m.

All trekkers must abide by the decisions of the chief guide and / or charity leaders especially on the final ascent.

All trekkers participate at their own risk.

I have read and agree to the conditions above and have enclosed my medical certificate and registration fee of £800, which I understand is non-refundable. (Any information subject to data protection will be kept for a maximum of one year unless problems arise and will be accessed only by charity organisers and trek guides).
